Scholarship criteria:

- ✓ Family must live in south central Kansas.
- ✓ Child must be Jewish as defined by their congregation.
- ✓ Family must make a personally meaningful pledge to the current Mid-Kansas Jewish Federation's Annual Campaign and be current on payments for all prior pledges.
- ✓ Child (and parent, if needed) should "give back" by volunteering for age-appropriate programs/projects with the MKJF such as Mitzvah projects, participating at MKJF events, working on Super Sunday etc.

The Federation has the right to decide if a particular camp qualifies for scholarship assistance. Only those attending recognized Jewish residential camps are eligible for assistance.

The number of scholarships and the amount of assistance is limited by the funds available.

For maximum consideration, please apply NO LATER THAN February 1.
